Why the UK was chosen by the Chinese companies?

There are 5 reasons for the Chinese companies to bring their business to the UK. Which UK related business organizations strive to create the right environment for business and actively helping companies locate and prosper. Here are just some of the reasons why The Chinese companies could succeed here:

- Skills: UK has a long tradition of engineering and manufacturing excellence, and established capabilities in IT, financial and professional services, and technologies in sectors ranging from life sciences to entire low carbon economies. All this is underpinned by a highly skilled, loyal and competitive workforce and driven forward by research and thousands of graduates from UK leading universities.
- Industry-led academic research: in UK you'll find specialist organizations with industry-leading facilities, and partners who are taking the science forward with innovative techniques. And through targeted support programs, the UK Government is ensuring that businesses remain at the forefront of technology and manufacturing development. And we're always looking for ways to bring academic skills and industrial needs closer together. Our approach includes working with academia to build capacity and support the needs of businesses in the key sectors. With the provision of specialist facilities, we will continue to provide the environment to accelerate the growth of technology and knowledge-based businesses.
- Proximity to UK hubs and European Marketplace: As well as being a destination in itself, UK gives you easy access to key industry hubs in the UK and further afield. With great roads, rail and air links to England, Europe and to the rest of the world. And the recent announcement of the electrification of the London rail line will bring us even closer.
- Communications infrastructure: By 2015, all residential and business premises will have access to Next Generation Broadband, with at least 50% having access to 100Mbps. We're committed to making UK a truly digital nation.
- Access to finance: UK recognize that financial support and the tax environment are often a critical factor for businesses on the move. The UK Government provides finance for companies locating projects to UK from another country, with between 10% to 50% of a company's costs, for capital expenditure and associated revenue being open to non-repayable finance. Businesses in UK can also access commercial finance from a variety of sources. A number of financial institutions operate in UK which provides commercial finance through loans, venture capital packages and introductions to investors through their xénos Business Angel Network.
